ALFRED THOMAS BOND

Alfred Thomas Bond, born February 25, 1869, son of Stephen and Sarah Clark Bond. Arrived April 14, 1898, to Lelia Clift, daughter of George and Sarah Henrietta Clift; born July 6, 1878, in Midvale. He died March 29, 1938, at Mesa, Arizona.

The home to which he was born was a miller's one to pioneer settlers, a one-room house with a dirt roof. During a rain, buckets and pans were set around to catch the water that seeped through, and the rain inside usually continued long after it had ceased outside.

Steven Bond was a cabinet maker by trade, a skill which he taught his sons. Small structure, when he built his one-room cabin, he left a very small door, surmising that it would be plenty high for any children that he and Sarah might have. All six of their children grew to bump their heads on the top of that door. In later years, the older boys, taking up the cabinet makers tools, added a room to the house and shingled the roof, making the house cozy and comfortable by pioneer standards.

Stephen Bond was in the Blackhawk Indian War, and while on duty he developed pneumonia and died, leaving a wife and six children to make their own way. Alfred joined his brothers in long hours of work, herding cows, sorting potatoes, gleaning wheat, and feeding livestock. They were paid in kind for their work, taking potatoes for their sorting and other foodstuffs for their different labors. The wheat they gleaned was threshed with a flail, and used for feeding pigs and chickens as well as food for the family. Then with a garden raised at home, the family held together, though their life was hard.

When school time came, Alfred did janitor work to pay his way through school, for he was an avid scholar. Eventually, he graduated from the University of Utah and stayed on to teach at that school for six years. One of his students was President David O. McKay, a source of pride to Alfred in his latter years. He also taught at the University of Chicago, the LDS Business College in Salt Lake City, Utah, the Ricks Academy in Rexburg, Idaho, and was principal in both Wasatch and North Sanpete High Schools.

Later he came to Arizona, first to teach at Snowflake Academy. On the side he was a cabinet maker and carpenter, building homes, coffins, and an addition to the high school, and whatever was needed in the community. Eventually he moved to Joseph City, Woodruff and Lakeside.

In the later community he was not only principal of the high school, but helped to build the High School building.

Four children were born to them. Their oldest son, Clift, was drowned in Deer Creek Reservoir a few years ago. Alfred's three daughters survive him: Stella Rasmussen, an art teacher in Midvale; Roberta Giles and DeEsta Jordan, both of Heber, Utah. He is also survived by a brother, John Bond of Mesa, Arizona, and a sister, Emily M. Biggs of Orem, Utah. 10 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Alfred retired from teaching in 1940 and came to Mesa, Arizona, to be near his brother, and has lived there until early this year. He continued his cabinet making until just a few years ago, skillfully turning out cedar chests and little tables and chairs. He also continued studying all his long life—having an unquenchable thirst for knowledge. Those near to him knew him as a student of the scriptures and of science.

Two months ago, his daughter and son-in-law, Brother and Sister Jordan, came from Heber City to see Brother Bond, learning that his health was failing. A heart condition and dropsy were taking their toll, so they arranged for his care at a rest home where he died last Saturday after 89 active years, March 29, 1958.

Alfred Thomas Bond was a quiet unassuming man who was driven all his life by that divine discontent, the desire to learn. He was the first teacher of manual training in the State of Utah.

LELIA LUELLA CLIFT BOND

She was the second daughter and second child in a family of nine children. The family moved to Heber, Utah, where she received her schooling. One of her teachers was Alfred Thomas Bond, whom she later married in the Salt Lake Temple, April 14, 1898.

Lelia Clift sang in the First Ward Choir for many years. After her marriage they lived in Salt Lake City, where Mr. Bond taught school at the University of Deseret for about nine years.

A. T. Bond taught school in Heber, Utah, Rexburg, Idaho; Mt. Pleasant, North High; and Cook County Normal School in Chicago, Ill. He also taught in Snowflake, Arizona; Flagstaff, Arizona; Joseph City, Woodruff and Lakeside, Arizona.

Mr. Bond moved to Arizona leaving his family in Utah. Lelia Bond took in sewing to support their family. She later worked in the Heber Drug store where she dipped chocolate candy for Abe Hatch. After World War I she started the Lelia Bond Lunch Room on Main Street in Heber. Then she took over the Jeff's Hotel. After her children were married, she married Joseph F. Murdock and moved to Caliente, Nevada, where she was a Relief Society literary teacher and a first counselor in the Relief Society. She was the Primary president in the Heber First Ward, a Relief Society block teacher for many years, and a stake board member in the Primary Assn., also a member of the standards committee in the First Ward Mutual. Mr. Murdock died Sept. 27, 1944. (Married Nov. 10, 1930). Married Walter G. Phelps in Heber, November 27, 1950. He died August 12, 1951 in Montpelier, Idaho.

After she gave up the Jeff's Hotel, she went to Butte, Montana, to demonstrate for the Shillings Company, also to Helena and Anaconda, Montana, and Spokane, Washington.

Children: Clift Bond, Stella, Roberta and DeEsta.

DAVID A. BROADBENT, prominent Utah educator, president of the Wasatch Stake, is a resident of Heber City.

Mr. Broadbent is a native of Utah, born at Goshen in Utah County, May 14, 1871, son of Thomas and Mary Jane (Nuttall) Broadbent. His parents were born and reared in Lancastershire, England, where they became early converts to the faith of the Church of Latter Day Saints. Thomas Broadbent was a pioneer of the Sanpete Valley, but with other settlers was driven out by Indians. In 1866 he settled in the Goshen district of Utah County, p 451 where he continued his useful life as a farmer and a loyal churchman. He was especially active in the musical department of church work.

After the advantages of the public schools in his home locality David A. Broadbent entered Brigham Young University at Provo, where he graduated with the degree Bachelor of Pedagogy in 1897. Subsequently by attending summer sessions of the University of Utah he was granted in 1916 the degree Bachelor of Science. In 1897 he was sent on a mission for his church to the southern states. On his return he became in 1900 a teacher and principal of the public schools at Charleston, Wasatch County. In 1904 he was chosen principal of the public schools of Heber City. His next important honor and responsibility in educational affairs was his election in 1910 as county superintendent of schools for Watsatch County. He served in that office thirteen years, and since 1923 he has been principal of the Latter Day Saints Seminary at Heber City. His work and influence as an educator in local schools have been broadened to a larger service over the state, particularly through his activity with J. Preston Creer and A. C. Nelson, the latter being state superintendent of public instruction, in the movement for the consolidation of the schools as a means of bringing the advantages of standardized school efficiency to the children of communities which could not otherwise support first class schools. Mr. Broadbent for one term was president of the Superintendents Division of the Utah Educational Association and for one term was a member of the State Textbook Commission.

Since early youth he has filled a succession of responsibilities in his church. He was chosen and sustained as president of the Wasatch Stake March 11, 1928. For three years he was president of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association, for one year was Sunday School superintendent for the Charleston Ward, for three years a member of the superintendency of the Sunday Schools in Wasatch Stake, for twelve years a counselor to the bishop of the Second Ward of Heber. He was also stake clerk for two years, second counselor to the stake president three years and first counselor for six years.

Mr. Broadbent has important business interests, he and one of his brothers being active in the sheep industry in Wyoming and he also owns farming land and live stock in his home district. He is a past president of the Heber Chamber of Commerce. He gave his active support to the movement resulting in the location of the Woods-Cross Canning Company at Heber City.

In the Latter Day Saints Temple at Manti, May 1, 1901, Mr. Broadbent married Miss Mima M. Murdock, daughter of Joseph R. and Margaret (Wright) Murdock, of Charleston, Wasatch County. Mrs. Broadbent is a zealous church worker, having been president of the ward and stake relief societies for a quarter of a century. Of their children the oldest is Joseph Grant. He is a Bachelor of Arts graduate of Brigham Young University, filled a church mission in Texas, and is now in charge of the live stock interests in Wyoming. Vida is the wife of Leland P. Wentz and they reside at Chicago. Naomi, who graduated with the Master of Arts degree from the Northwestern School of Speech at Chicago, is a high school teacher of dramatic art. Leah served on a mission in Minnesota and is now a teacher in the public schools. Margaret, a Bachelor of Arts graduate of Brigham Young University, where she was also assistant registrar and secretary to Dean Merrill, is a teacher in the business department of the Moroni High School. Dee Albert has completed two years of work in the Brigham Young University and is on a church mission in California. The names of the other and younger children of Mr. and Mrs. Broadbent are: Mary, a freshman in Brigham Young University; Mima, Emer E., Harvey, Clara (deceased), Sarah M., Helen, and Zina (deceased).

Former Heber resident, Douglas Ray Carille has been honored in Idaho for achievements attained at Idaho State University. Douglas Carille, an assistant professor of business at Idaho State University, has been named professor of the month by Mortar Board, Carille concluded. Douglas Ray will be remembered as an honor student at Wasatch High School.

Douglas Carille, an assistant professor of business at Idaho State University, has been named professor of the month by Mortar Board senior scholastic honorary. Carille, who teaches accounting, joined the ISU faculty two years ago. He has B.S. and M.A. degrees in accounting, both from Brigham Young University, and was a certified public accountant for four years prior to joining a wood products company in Portland, Oregon.

As an instructor, "fresh from the 'real world' of business," Carille said he would like his students to leave without fear and with more knowledge of what that "real world" is like.

He also said it is easier for him as an outside professional coming in to recognize the quality of business programs at ISU.

"As I talk to people in the community, even people on campus, I realize they don't have the vaguest idea of the type and quality of the programs here," he said. "The reason I'm here is because I was impressed with the quality of the programs."

Carille has begun publication of an alumni newsletter for ISU business graduates and established a resource bank for career placement which has resulted in the introduction of microcomputing in the classroom, the first business professor to include microcomputing. He also would like to develop a continuing education program for certified public accountants.

LULA CLEGG

Lula Clegg, daughter of Fred L. and Emma Caroline Clegg, was born in Heber City, October 16, 1892.

Her first schooling was at the old Central School and at the Heber High School, from which she graduated in 1910. That summer she attended school at the University of Utah and took classes in preparation for teaching. She was 17 years of age when she took the teachers' examination and was granted a teaching certificate.

The first teaching job was at Wallsburg; the second year at Provo Bench; and the next six years at the Heber North School. She attended school each summer to improve her teaching and to work towards a degree.

In 1919, she was appointed Clerk of the Board of Education and Health Supervisor. The summer of 1924, she attended school at Columbia University in New York and took special training for the job as Elementary Supervisor. She acted as Clerk of the Board and Elementary Supervisor until 1942, when she was appointed Superintendent of Schools and worked in that capacity for eight years.

While in Heber City, she was Chairman of the Women's Division of the County Fair and had charge of parades and several art exhibits in connection with the Fair. She was prominent in the local Business and Professional Women's Organization and was elected State President in 1934-35, which necessitated travel all over the State in organizing clubs, holding meetings and attending conventions. She was Second Counselor in the Stake MIA.

BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS

Schools she attended were: Berkeley, California; UCLA, Los Angeles; Columbia University, New York; the University of Utah; and received a BS degree from the Brigham Young University in 1937 and a Master's degree in 1951.

After leaving Heber City, Lula and her sister Genevieve set up a Gift Shop and Art Gallery in Provo. They sold the business in 1954, and Lula accepted a position with the Extension Division of the Brigham Young University as Chairman of the Home Study Department. She has held the position for five years and will continue with the B. Y. U. until retirement.

Lula owns a home in Provo and has a hobby—a beautiful yard and rose garden. Her nephew lives with her and attends school at the B. Y. U. Lula is energetic, progressive, and has made a name for herself as a member of the Brigham Young University Faculty. — 3/2

Clegg to Participate in Developing Nursing Program at Valdota College

Dr. Roberta L. Clegg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Clegg, is participating in developing the graduate program in Nursing at Valdosta State College. She has written an article titled, "Self Help/Self-Care Groups: A Needed Helping Hand," which was published in the June issue of Home Healthcare Nurse, a professional journal for community health nurses. The article emphasizes the importance of the formation of support groups to share with each other methods of treatment, adjustment to disabilities, and the means each individual has found to overcome pain, alienation and disability. Dr. Clegg quoted Katz and Bender when she wrote, "People need to live, to be valued, to experience, to give, to share with others, to transcend the boundaries of their own egos, to give and take in social communion. Most must fight for a place in the world to reshape a society that cannot see their value."

We are very happy with our daughters accomplishments.

On my seventh birthday father gave me a small printing press which he purchased on one of his trips east, where he made bi-annual trips with trainloads of fat beef cattle from our Colorado, Utah and Wyoming ranch for the eastern markets at Omaha or Chicago. The press would print a form $3\frac{1}{2} \times 5$ inches and was of sufficient capacity to print letter heads and reasonably large envelope forms. Mother was my banker and in the three years between seven and ten I saved \$35 (present purchasing power about \$200) and bought the hand press on which I later printed the Heber Herald, a 4-page 9 x 12-inch weekly newspaper with a circulation of 300 copies, and continent-wide for the subscription list. There were three pages of hand-set type and one page of advertising that brought in \$6 a week, or near \$300 yearly. But when high school time came the entire staff of the Herald (consisting of a boy of 13 years) was drafted and the Herald ceased publication.

I was editor, manager, typo and the necessary newspaper devil. When the entire staff was stalled by parental demands, the Herald had no chance but to fade out. Details of its life and death struggles and accomplishments are past history, as detailed by J. Cecil Alter in his books, "Early Utah Journalism," Utah State Historical Society, Salt Lake City, 1938. Pages 83 to 87, inclusive.

I entered the Heber High School, consisting of one room, one teacher, and one dozen assorted students. September, 1892, the Preparatory School at the University of Utah, September, 1896.

I left the Heber Brass Band as secretary, librarian and one of the musicians after a period of ten years.

In 1897 I entered the A.C.U. as the

ABRAM HATCH

I was born in Heber City, Utah, September 8, 1879. My parents were Joseph and Sarah Jane Clyde Hatch. Mother bore eight children, six sons and two daughters. She died at the age of 50, and father was killed in an auto wreck when he was near his eightieth year.

first student from Wasatch County, studying animal husbandry, dairying, English and history. The Wasatch Creamery was constructed in the winter of '97 and the spring of '98 as a community Co-Op. I took over management April 1, 1898, and remained there for a period of eighteen months and then entered the University of Utah as a freshman in engineering.

After two and one-half years of schooling, fire wiped out the engineering building and with it my books, laboratory equipment and job as assistant to Dr. James E. Talmage, in geology and mineralogy. Balance of the school year was spent with the Pacific Lumber Co. I then went back to Heber City and purchased the Heber Pharmacy. As manager I made it a good investment and in 1903 married Rowena Ottinger, youngest daughter of G. M. Ottinger. He was an artist and an art instructor to many of the present and past prominent artists of the state. He was the first art instructor at the University of Utah.

After two years of schooling in practical and theoretical pharmacy, I was able to pass the examinations and receive from the State Board of Pharmacy my license to practice in Utah.

In 1905, I organized the Heber Drug Co. as a corporation, and moved to new quarters in the Bank Bldg. The store room was spacious and fixtures were modern. We had a very good business in drugs and confectionery.

In 1906 I sold my interest in the drug store and, with wife and two daughters, moved to Salt Lake and bought the Fifth East Pharmacy.

I sold this store in 1912 and bought a half interest in the Heber Drug and moved with wife, two daughters and two sons back to Heber and became manager of the drug store.

1913 was a panic year and we weathered the slump by careful purchasing and merchandising. We manufactured all confections and ice creams that the trade required. This was more than 50 pct. of our total sales and required little additional help so that the gross profit from this department provided a generous net profit. As competition by another drug store developed we had to make every line a profitable one. In 1915 we bought farm property, leased an additional hundred acres and started a registered Jersey herd. Farm and dairy prospered and there was plenty of good Jersey cream for confectionery and growing boys and girls.

By-products of skim and butter milk and a business in grade A 5 pct. (butter fat) bottle milk added both labor and profit, and jobs for the young family.

Modern machinery and shop for the farm, a large hay mow for the surplus baled hay, with the milking machine, now made possible the milking of 35 cows by one man.

White Leghorn chickens and Chester White hogs grew numerous and fat. The girls had the profits from the chickens and cared for them diligently. The boys took turns in driving the herd to pasture and shared with Dad the labor and care of milk and cream.

Heber High School had grown with increase in population and by 1923 the two girls graduated and entered the University of Utah. We found we were now short-handed in both the home and the store. Boys were in high school and we began to unload our investments.

We sold dairy herd and farm investments in 1924 and 1925, and purchased a home in Salt Lake City, moving in 1927. Sold the store in 1928 and took employment here as a pharmacist, which gave us an income while our business of supplying LDS Church and others with projection films for the mission fields. Retired from the drug store business shortly after the '29 and '30 panic and developed a photography business of considerable magnitude, from which we are slowly retiring.

Moved to Garden Park Ward in August, 1948, and bought the Albert Van Cott home on 1285 Yale Ave. We celebrated our golden wedding there on June 17, 1953, with a guest list registering over 325 friends and relatives.
